CASE NO. CR07-134 RSM

DETENTION ORDER

Offense charged:

Count 1: Conspiracy to Distribute Heroin and Cocaine, in violation of Title 21, U.S.C., Sections 841(a)(1), 841(b)(1)(B), 841(b)(1)(C), and 846.

Date of Detention Hearing: April 9, 2007

The Court, having conducted an uncontested detention hearing pursuant to Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds that no condition or combination of conditions which the defendant can meet will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of any other person and the community. The Government was represented by Adam Cornell. The defendant was represented by Stephan Illa.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

(1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed the Conspiracy to Distribute Heroin and Cocaine offense. The maximum penalty is in excess of ten years. There is therefore a rebuttable presumption against the defendant's release based upon both dangerousness and flight risk, under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e).

(2) The defendant is viewed as a risk of nonappearance as he is a citizen of Mexico and is in the United States illegally. Defendant's background is unknown/unverified and he has no known ties the Western District of Washington. The Bureau of Immigration and Customs Enforcement has placed a detainer against Defendant.

(3) Defendant stipulates to detention at this time.

Based upon the foregoing information, it appears that there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future Court appearances and/or the safety of other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) The defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) The defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

(3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and

- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 11th day of April, 2007.

MONICA J. BENTON
United States Magistrate Judge
